Dear Miss Adair

It grieves me to learn of your Father's illness, and I am writing to ask if there is any little service I may render that might add to his comfort? I do hope he will not continue to be ill for long – and we may have the pleasure of seeing him out again.

Do command me if I can be of service.

May I thank you, at this time, for your beautiful flowers?

You were all sweet to us.

Sincerely
Bertie E. Gritman

Dear Miss Adair

Am very glad you sold the farm, there is no chance for me here. Snow on the shady side is 2 ft deep. I have not saw Logan and do not know the exact amount of wood he took. He took 6 trees. I think 10 cord is a fair guess on it.

Yours truly
